LEARNING MOMENT

Great Desires, Humility, and Peace

Another consequence of offended self-love is getting all upset. After a man falls and sees himself on the ground, rather than simply recognizing his own weakness and importance, and remaining in peace, he concludes, "I shall never succeed. I give up. It is useless." That is really rebellious discouragement. The one who is truly childlike is not surprised that he stumbles. He falls and picks himself up again without wearying, each time more determined to attain his goal.
