Masses for the dead will provide for them a God-assigned “indulgence” (a curtailing of the duration and/or intensity of purgatorial suffering). But if Mass is offered as intercession for persons (including yourself) while still alive and in the state of grace—i.e., no unrepented serious sin (1 John 5:16), these living persons receive three added benefits not available to the dead, namely:

- 1) Increase of merit (assigned heavenly joy and glory) forever—CCC 2010).
- 2) Added sanctifying grace (a deeper sharing in the life of God—2 Pet. 1:4).
- 3) Actual graces (conscience-nudges to do good and avoid evil—CCC 2000),

The dead cannot “grow spiritually.” Their level of holiness and resultant reward can be increased only before death. Hence, while a Mass offered for a deceased person can provide great relief, a Mass offered for a living person can provide great growth. Both ways of applying the Mass are high-level acts of the virtue of charity.
