LEARNING MOMENT

Humble Confidence

Moral misery is a sickness much greater than a disease. I desire to be purified much more than the blind man desired to see or the paralytic to walk. We must have this sincere desire.

Even if they think that their Communion, their use of the sacramental, their confident acts of love have already purified them, they will go faithfully to receive, along with the absolution, a purification which is most special because it is sacramental, a new effusion upon them of the Blood of Jesus, their only hope, without forgetting that this recourse is necessary only for serious sins.

"I Believe in Love" by Fr. Jean D'Elbee
