“Each day the people are to go out and gather their daily portion; thus will I test them, to see whether they follow my instructions or not.” EXODUS 16:4

When the Israelites gathered more than their daily portion of manna, the surplus became wormy and rotten. In the same way today, self-reliance, pride and ego leads to hoarding and excessive surplus of goods and money. Living a stewardship lifestyle helps us discern our “wants” from our “needs”. Living a generous lifestyle reminds us that God will provide all that we need and that we have plenty to share.

SEVEN SISTERS APOSTOLATE

The Mission of the Seven Sisters Apostolate is to pray “one hour” each day for the pastor. Each “sister” picks one day of the week and commits (for one year) to praying in front of the Blessed Sacrament for the conversion and holiness of that particular priest. St. Ann’s and Sacred Heart have started an apostolate for Fr. Sughroue. We currently have Sisters praying Sunday – Friday and have several substitutes available in the event that a sister cannot fulfill her obligation for a particular week.

NEEDED: We are currently looking for someone to commit to the Saturday hour. This hour can be at your choosing. We can always use more substitutes, too, for those who would like to volunteer but cannot commit on a weekly basis.

Please contact Deanna Swanson, 308-379-6975, swanson321@kdsi.net, if you would like to volunteer or if you have questions. Materials are available to assist with the holy hour.

The U.S. bishops urge our participation each Friday in a nationwide Novena for the Legal Protection of Human Life, August 3–September 28. Participants will receive weekly email or text reminders to pray and fast, along with little-known facts about Roe v. Wade to share with others. Sign up at www.usccb.org/pray!
